

Bound Spirits

Spirits who are trapped in the Outer Darkness and who have become servants of Satan are referred to as bound spirits. These are human souls who messed with the demonic, who delved into dark magic, who sold their souls to the Devil or otherwise bound themselves to the demonic in their lifetimes; when they left their physical body, the dark side collected their debt.

The Daily Lifting does not remove bound spirits. The usual Band of Mercy can't assist because they're human souls who bound themselves to the demonic, while Archangel Michael doesn't have authority over them because they're not truly demons. You would need to call upon the Glory Band of Mercy to remove these souls. The Glory Band of Mercy consists of human souls who were once servants of Satan but have been redeemed back to God; they have chosen to spend their time in Heaven assisting others in similar situations as members of the Glory Band.

To call upon the Glory Band of Mercy, you would use the following prayer formula:

I would please ask the Glory Band of Mercy to remove whatever spirits they have domain over now that are attached to, affecting, or influencing myself, my mate, my family, my pets, my home and property, and all that I have domain over now, and either place them in appropriate protected sanctuary or do whatever they deem necessary with them in the name of Jesus Christ and I thank thee.
